

Roving Camera-

Feb 14th. '56.

U.S.A. Rodeo Bumps-

California-- In the Palm Springs Rodeo, sponsored by the Mounted Police, <sup>THE RIDERS DID TAKE BEST BUF</sup> the Brahma Bulls were in ~~no~~ no mood for compromise. And though ~~the~~ riders were tough- the beef was even tougher. ~~AND FINALLY~~ <sup>DICTATED THE TERMS</sup> ~~Risking life and limb is no novelty to these hardy cowhands- but it's~~ ~~the bull who finally dictated the peace terms.~~

Vienna- Opera Ball-

Austria- Following the re-opening of the Opera House, the traditional Opera Ball was held in Vienna, reviving past glories of this famous European Capital.

And a ~~stage show~~ <sup>performance</sup> by dancers of the State Ballet delighted the many distinguished guests, at the first carnival ball to be held here for 18 years.

Bob Hope's Valentine-

A break in shooting at Pinewood Studios found film star Diana Dors taking advantage of Leap Year - to nominate comedian Bob Hope as her "valentine" ~~SOUND.~~

Sultan returns

North Africa: Pomp and pageantry in ~~xxxxix~~ Morocco as the Sultan, ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~

Sidi Mohammed Ben Youssef made a state entry into Casablanca - his first visit to the City since his restoration, last Autumn.

And ~~the~~ aerial pictures ~~enable us to~~ <sup>has, it is hoped,</sup> reveal the extent of the acclamation given to the Ruler - whose return brought more stable conditions for his people.

Malta voting

Malta: On the eve of the referendum to decide the future of the island, the Archbishop of Malta ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ <sup>received applause for</sup> a great ovation - applauding his directive to Roman Catholics, not to support ~~the~~ union-with-Britain.

Next day, the citizens voted on the Government proposals, calling for ~~Malta's~~ <sup>the</sup> integration of the Island colony with Britain and the return of three members to Westminster. The Poll showed a three-to-one majority for integration.