

Issue 2314

~~The biggest cup crowd of the day packed Maine Road for the~~

The biggest cup crowd of the day packed Maine Road for the All-Lancashire Sixth Round clash between Manchester City and Everton.

~~Manchester~~ Manchester (in white shorts) kicked off, determined to ~~avenge~~ <sup>in white shirts</sup> that 1933 Final Defeat.

Forcing an early corner, Everton were the first to look really dangerous, but Leivers clears - right on the line.

Everton again, playing really brilliant football. At this stage, the ~~Manchester defence~~ home defence looked in real trouble, and only Bert Trautman between the posts kept City on the road back...to Wembley.

But a goal had to come and Jimmy Harris banged one home from thirty yards.

The second half brought a dramatic Manchester revival. Now it was Everton defending desperately - striving to maintain that slender lead against mounting attacks.

~~But Everton had no Bert Trautman, and when a free kick by Paul found~~ Hayes - little Joe nodded it home.

Manchester were level and going all-out for the winner. And here it comes a high centre, and Johnstone heads home in brilliant style.

So the City won two-one, and with United heading the first Division, Manchester is all set for a Cup and League double.