

London- Louis Golding weds-

London-- For 60 years, the famous novelist Louis Golding has remained a bachelor. Now ~~he has fallen for~~ ^{IT'S THE DAY OF HIS WEDDING TO} the charming Mrs Annie Winetrobe, whom he married at Marylebone Register Office.

A real-life romance that will appeal to all who ^{have} enjoyed the many works of this talented author

Corsica- The Queen sails-

Corsica-- Arriving at Ajaccio- the island's capital- by air from ~~London~~ London, the Queen was warmly greeted by M. Savreux, Prefect of Corsica, who came to wish Her Majesty "bon voyage" at the start of her holiday cruise in the Mediterranean.

Boarding the pin~~ace~~ taking the Royal Party out to the Britannia, was Princess Alexandra, followed by the Duke of Edinburgh, who had been on naval manoeuvres in the Royal Yacht, ³ and the ~~queen~~.

A well-~~earned~~ rest ~~and recuperation~~ following the arduous tour of Nigeria.