

Malenkov-

Arriving from East Berlin, Russia's former Prime Minister and now Minister for Power Stations- Mr Malenkov- received a warm welcome from Mr Malik- the Soviet Ambassador, Lord Citrine, Chairman of the Central Electricity Authority, and Mr Aubrey Jones, Minister of Fuel and Power.

Mr Malenkov leads a party of Soviet technicians who are making a three-week tour, to see not only our electrical developments, but also something of the British way of life.

Karl Marx-

At the same time, London remembered the ~~German~~ economist and philosopher Karl Marx, when a memorial was unveiled at his grave in Highgate Cemetery.

~~He~~ The founder of the Communist League came to London ^{from Germany} over 100 years ago, ^{remaining} ~~staying~~ there until his death in 1883.

Jordan-

Jordan-- After ~~the~~ the departure of General Glubb, a procession of youth ~~and~~ organisations paraded the streets of Amman to gather ~~subscriptions and~~ donations for the "National Guard".

General Ennabi- (successor to General Glubb) ^{is} now ~~at~~ the head of the Arab Legion / ~~with his headquarters at Amman and a force of 15,000 men~~

~~The~~ King Hussein of Jordan- (acting on a new policy of nearer approach to his people) gave a personal audience to many ~~ministers~~ at the Palace. ~~His~~ His lovely Queen Dina received the ~~best~~ wishes and congratulations of all the women of her country on the birth of her daughter, Princess Aliya.

Duchess of Norfolk-

London- In honour of its centenary year, the Duchess of Norfolk planted a rose tree in the garden of the Hospital of St John and St Elizabeth, which is ~~run~~ run by two devoted women- the Matron and her Secretary.

~~The ceremony was watched by~~ The Duke of Norfolk, ~~who~~ accompanied the Duchess on a tour of the hospital, ^{which was} ~~with a~~ ~~romantic~~ ~~background.~~ ~~It~~ was founded in 1856 by four Sisters of Mercy, who nursed with Florence Nightingale in the Crimea.