

Coventry-- Bombed Cathedral will rise again-

Mar 27th. '56.

Coventry-- Paying her first visit to the city since her Coronation-
- to lay the foundation stone of the new Cathedral, the Queen, ~~who was~~ accompanied by the Duke of Edinburgh, saw the Cross of Nails which was recovered from the charred timbers of the old building.

And the Queen paused where her father had stood amid the ruins of the 15th century Cathedral, nearly sixteen years ago after that devastating air attack.

One day a noble House of God will rise again from the ashes of the old- a symbol of a constant faith- ~~that is graciously upheld by~~
AS HER MAJESTY SETS THE
NEW STONE INTO ITS PLACE.
~~Her Majesty the Queen.~~ (Sound to end)
