

Duke of Edinburgh

London: At a holiday camp reunion, at the Albert Hall, the Duke of Edinburgh was the guest of the famous Billy Butlin, when he received a cheque, subscribed by holiday campers, for the National Playing Fields Association. / SOUND

The Duke (who is President of the Association) then presented a trophy to the Manager of the Clacton Camp, which, last summer, raised the largest amount for this worthy cause. /

Lord Louis

India: During his recent visit to Delhi, Admiral Earl Mountbatten took a busman's holiday when he officiated at a match between the India Polo Association and the Army. /

~~Earl Mountbatten~~ is himself, a fine polo player, and often enjoyed a game in India, during his term as <sup>of office.</sup> ~~Governor-General.~~ /

Countess Mountbatten presented the prizes after the Polo Association had won a thrilling match by six goals to five. /

Air Hostesses

It's good to hear that British girls,
So often compared unfavourably with their American sisters, ~~it's good to hear that British girls~~ <sup>are the tops</sup> with Pan American Airways.

These are the first of fifty - ~~chosen~~ <sup>Picked</sup> chosen as Stewardesses for the American Airline. ~~Chosen~~ for their personality and charm - their reward will be interesting world travel and a thousand pounds a year salary. /

Canadian Fire

Montreal: Following an explosion, ~~in one of the maintenance bays,~~ a Royal Canadian Air Force Transport hangar at Dorval Airport (built for planes engaged in the war-time airlift to Britain) went up in flames.

Station Personnel worked untiringly to save ~~the~~ valuable equipment. But in spite of their efforts - two aircraft were destroyed as well as many documents. /

Despite the firefighters' efforts - the hangar was gutted. ~~Latest~~ reports place the damage at three million dollars. /