Holiday News flashes (Sheet Two)

A Western setting for an oriental sport, when the Bodokwai, (the Club that fostered Judo in Britain, nearly fifty years ago, staged a display at the Albert Hall.

It seems that you're never too young to take up this ancient sport - which claims to develop moral as well as physical well-being.

Outdoor sport at Teddington Reach: the Easter Regatta of the Tamesis Club - one of the oldest Sailing Clubs in the Country.

On the opening days, the strong wintry blasts (that largely made it a stay-at-home Easter) made racing a stern test of skill for a record number of competitors.

Passengers nearly went overboard, too, in the sidecar event of the National Motor Cycle Race Meeting, at Oulton Park, Cheshire.

At Herne Hill - the annual Good Friday Meeting brought a full entry for the International Racing Festival.

The International Sprint Race for the "Champion of Champions" Trophy was won by Lloyd Binch of Nottingham, who beat the holder, Keith Harrison, by inches.

The Trophy (which attracted riders from five continental countries and Canada) was presented to the Nottingham star by film actor Stanley Baker.

At Goodwood, Stirling Moss driving the latest Maserati, No 1, and Mike Hawthorn (in the new B.R.M.) No 4, were rivals in the Richmond Race for Grand Prix Cars.

In the 76 mile Contest, Run over seventy six miles, Mike Hawthorn was well placed until the B.R.M. overturned in a hundred mile an hour crash. Hawthorn escaped with severe bruising on a day marred by two fatal crashes.

The winner was Stirling Moss - who set up a new lap record of over ninety-five miles per hour. A racing thrill for a record Goodwood crowd....
