

London: Segrave Trophy for Campbell

6th April 1956

of the Royal Automobile Club,

~~London:~~ Recognition for a great achievement as Lord Camden presents a plaque (representing the Segrave Trophy) to Donald Campbell, the world water-speed record-holder.

The trophy commemorates Sir Henry Segrave, who lost his life in 1930, during an attempt on the same record that ~~brought fame to Campbell last~~ ^{CAMPBELL HOPES TO INCREASE}

~~year.~~ / SOUND. / DONALD'S FAMOUS FATHER TWICE HELD THIS COVETED TROPHY

~~So Donald Campbell joins his famous father, Sir Malcolm, as a proud holder of the~~ ~~Segrave Trophy.~~