

10th April 1956

News flashesNew Navy missile

The Blueprint for the Navy of the future is taking shape with this ~~glimpse~~ glimpse of the U.S.S. Boston, America's first guided-missile cruiser. The vessel mounts no big guns - for its guided missiles can sink a surface ship or, when fitted with an atomic war-head - destroy an enemy base with devastating fury.

Passing-Out Parade

Lincolnshire: After taking the salute at the Passing-Out of Cadets (who can now look back on two years of successful training at the Royal AirForce College, Cranwell) Air Chief Marshal Sir Dermot Boyle, Chief of the Air Staff - presents the Sword of Honour to his son, Senior Under-Officer A.A. Boyle.

A proud moment, indeed, for any Service Chief...