

Ballroom Championships

London: The ~~Empress~~ ^{BRITISH} Hall became the centre of the dancing world, when twinkling feet from all parts of Britain, Europe and the Commonwealth, competed in the 'Star' Professional and Amateur Ballroom Championships. In the Professional Event - seventy-two couples faced the judging panel and the proud ^{CHAMPIONS,} Alf Davies and ^{JULIE} Julie Reaby (Grand finalists last year) received the Gold Trophy from actress Joy Nicholls.

Lord Louis in Australia

Australia: During her visit with ~~Lord Louis~~ ^{THE FIRST SEA LORD,} - Countess Mountbatten ~~Commandant of the~~ - took the opportunity to present long service medals to ~~some~~ ^{of the St John Ambulance Brigade} members in Melbourne.

At Sydney - on board the Australian aircraft-carrier of the same name - Lord ~~Louis~~ ^{Mountbatten} held an informal parade on the flight deck - and addressed the ship's company.

~~Then, the First Sea Lord continued his flying tour by helicopter.~~

Queen Mother

Berkshire: H.M.S. Dauntless (training depot of the Women's Royal Naval Service, ~~at~~ ^{at} ~~Eastfield~~) receives a visit from the Commandant-in-Chief - Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother.

During her stay, the Royal Visitor toured the Establishment - admiring the artistry of Wrens in the handicraft section - and also ~~investigated~~ ^{THE WORK OF} personal ~~investigation~~ of the catering and welfare departments.

Egypt

Egypt: Arriving in the Middle East on his "peace mission," Mr Hammarskjold, the United Nations' Secretary-General conferred with Col. Nasser, in Cairo, on ways of easing tension on Israel's borders.

Outside Tel Aviv, investigators examine the Israeli school - where three children were killed during a bombing-attack by Egyptian suicide squads.

Meanwhile, as the fear of armed conflict grows, Tel Aviv has begun ~~the~~ erecting public shelters - a reflection on the urgent task that faces the ^{United Nations} U.N. mediators.

→
Bobby
FIRST →