

Plane Crash

Essex: Sudden disaster to a York trooping aircraft, bound for ~~Konstantin~~ Malta - ~~which~~ <sup>It</sup> swung off the runway, at Stansted, during take-off, and crashed - killing an R.A.F. man and a child, <sup>which</sup>

There was a miraculous escape for another fifty-two, <sup>As this was near on</sup> ~~Reading investigation~~
~~The spot~~ <sup>FIRE TEAMS WERE SEEN ON THE SPOT</sup> Pending investigations, York aircraft ~~will~~ <sup>will</sup> be taken off trooping duties.

Italian President in France

Paris: Arriving by train on an official visit, the President of the Italian Republic, Signor Gronchi, was warmly welcomed by President Coty of France.

This visit - the first of its kind since 1903 - will give an opportunity for a friendly exchange of views.

Venice race

Venice: To those people who always imagined ~~gilded~~ <sup>ROMANTIC</sup> gondolas gliding along on wings of song, (preferably <sup>romantic</sup>), these pictures will come as a shock. It's the annual Gondoliers' Festival Regatta, held in honour of St. Mark, the Patron Saint of Venice.

The race caused the biggest stir on the Canals - since that other festival, when ~~Miss Dore appeared in a bikini...~~ <sup>OUR STARS TURNED UP IN FORCE.</sup>

Canada Water Race

Canada: Another water festival - this time out West, on the Mackenzie River, Oregon - with ~~a~~ <sup>a</sup> hundred craft of all shapes and sizes, competing in the Annual White Water Boat Parade.

But this is more than a race - it's a challenge. Daring crews against seventeen miles of swirling waters - with the only prize - a ducking. <sup>1/2</sup>
Here's another crew trying to shoot the rapids. They're going... <sup>9000</sup>
Three men in a tub. ~~Slub... Slub... Slub...~~
