On a victory express - bound for Manchester, the 1956 Cup Winners ~~return~~ return home - to a great City welcome. ² And though goalkeeper Bert Trautman and Skipper Roy Paul have shared most of the limelight - ~~xxx~~ it has been a great team triumph.

Four months ago, Manchester City set out on that long road to Wembley - the scene of bitter disappointment the previous year. Now, as they drive to a civic reception at the Town Hall - they share the Final triumph with the faithful fans - for this is the moment that crowns ^{THEIR} ~~that~~ seasonal pilgrimage in rain, hail or snow, to cheer on "The City".
Around the Civic Centre - a "Cup Final" crowd welcome the "conquering heroes" - and with Manchester winning both the Cup and the League Championship - the City is now United in ~~the~~ football honours.
