

Somerset: Continuing his two-day tour of Naval Air Stations, the Duke of Edinburgh arrived in a Heron aircraft, at Yeovilton...

During a round of inspection, the Duke ~~was keenly interested in the~~ ~~Warrior fighters sitting on the tarmac~~ brought encouragement to the maintenance crews - who ~~will~~ perform a vital, (if unspectacular) role - in keeping the planes flying. /

6 Russia: British Delegation

Leningrad: A warm welcome has been ~~awaiting~~ <sup>AWAITING</sup> the British Electrical Delegation, (led by Lord Citrine), during its many visits to power plants throughout the Soviet Union. / ~~When in Leningrad, the party admired~~

~~architectural monuments~~
In <sup>MOSCOW</sup> ~~the capital~~ - the delegates enjoyed a reciprocal welcome from Mr Malenkov - the Minister for Power Stations - who recently led a Soviet visit to Britain... /
