

British Legion

London: In a Whit-Sunday Parade at the Cenotaph, veterans of the British Legion paid tribute to former comrades, who gave their lives for their country.

Following the Memorial Service, the regional banners of the organisation were carried past in Salute. The Parade co-incided with the 36th Annual Conference of the Legion - which works ceaselessly on behalf of disabled War Veterans.

Film Festival

Cork: The 8-45 am. from Dublin was re-named the "Film Star Special" when the British delegation arrived for the International Film Festival. From Cork, the stars were only a stone's throw from that world-famous stone at Blarney Castle, and during their visit, Tony Wright ~~was~~ ⁵⁰⁴⁹⁴⁶ the imaginary gift of a "golden tongue" by kissing the stone. And so the Film Festival began - with a star-spangled gala occasion - to mark the first event of its kind to be held in the City.

Russian horsemen

Soviet Union: The daring riding feats of Cossacks have thrilled audiences throughout the world. And here - at Dagestan, in the Caucasus - they learn at an early age.... For Nikolai Tatenko - who is only fifteen years old - is already the champion trick rider of the Republic. Young Nikolai ~~is~~ is the star pupil of his ~~own~~ ^{his} seventy year-old ~~instructor~~ instructor - who is the oldest Caucasian member of a famous horse-riding community.

Prince meets Franco

Spain: Continuing their honeymoon in Southern Europe, Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco arrived at the Pardo Palace, in Madrid, to pay a courtesy call on General Franco.

The happy couple enjoyed a cordial stay - with Spain's Chief of State and Senora Franco - and a luncheon party was given in their honour.
