

Truman at Oxford

Oxford: A famous American visitor, Mr Harry Truman (America's former President) takes his place in an academic procession through the University City - to receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Civil Law. The ceremony was held in the ancient Sheldonian Theatre, where ~~the~~ ^{was conferred upon} Chancellor, Lord Halifax ~~presented~~ the award upon the distinguished ~~statesman~~ ^{honoured for his world leadership in the post-war years.} MR TRUMAN BY THE CHANCELLOR, LORD HALIFAX.

Tower Bridge

Tower Bridge: Through the ancient gateway to London comes one of the world's most modern destroyers, the St. Laurent, pride of the Canadian Navy, on a seven day visit.

This five-million ^{pound} ~~and~~ submarine "killer," ~~was launched at~~ ^{was one of the escort-ships for} the Queen's visit to Sweden.

An atomic-age warship - ^{SHE} ~~she~~ has been called the "electrical wonderland".

Tito in Stalingrad

Russia: Stalingrad gave President Tito of Yugoslavia the greatest reception since he began his week's tour in the southern parts of the Soviet Union.

During his visit, the Marshal (who was accompanied by his wife) drove to a collective farm, where a welcome with flowers was showered upon the ^{Jugoslav leader} ~~popular statesman~~ - who is determined to be the friend of both East and West.