Dress Show- / London-- When Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother visited the Royal College of Art School of Fashion, she expressed admiration for the outstanding handiwork of the students, who had created many and original designs.

The presentation of ^{some} exquisite new ~~xxxxxxx~~ dresses for bride and bridesmaids ~~gained instant approval~~ ^{was one highlight at} this, the School's first Royal visit ~~since it was organised in its present form eight years ago~~ ^{for 1948 year.}

Heat Suit-

America-- Red-hot news from New York, where they're testing a new fire-resisting aluminium suit, in which the wearer sits in a furnace temperature of 1200 degrees Fahrenheit, ^{that's} about one-eighth ^{of} the heat of the sun! At this temperature, ~~a wicker chair~~ ^{EVERYTHING} bursts into flames- but he's ~~safe~~ ^{SAFE}, thanks to the aluminium coating.

A dressed dummy ~~is~~ flares up in a matter of seconds.

The suit is specially designed for rescue work at big industrial fires- making the aluminium man the firefighter of the future.

Turbine Car-

France-- The first French turbine-driven car, "Shooting Star" makes its debut on the Montlhery race track ~~near Paris~~ ^{the 270 horse-power car}. With a noise like a jet plane, ~~the car has a 270 horse power engine,~~ ~~it~~ develops speeds in the neighbourhood of 150 m.p.h- the limit allowed on this ancient ~~track~~ track.

After the trial run, a conference between ~~the~~ production Chiefs, and the ~~driver~~ ^{driver}, confirms the success of this experimental wonder.

~~Spain~~ ^{of Belfast} Dublin-- At the Clonliffe Harriers Sports, Miss Theima Hopkins receives the Gold Medal ~~in recognition~~ ^{for} of her outstanding achievement in gaining the world women's high-jump crown.

Highlight of the Meeting was the tremendous finish of the Mile- between ^{Ireland's} Ronnie Delaney, ~~of Crusaders Athletic Club,~~ ^{ON THE INSIDE} and Britain's Brian Hewson, both four-minute milers.

^{As they pass the tape almost level,} ~~As they pass the tape to win by inches,~~ the Irishman collapses- but makes a plucky recovery- to congratulate his brilliant rival on a wonder finish.
