2347) Wimbledon --

The magic of Wimbledon continues- in spite of a skight weather set-back.

On the Centre Court, Britain's Ann Shilcock is matched against player - secu at America's Althea Gibson- the fourth Woman seed, THE FAR END Am early milly with with with serving no (Sound)

The American girl's game whaten shows the concentration, power and well-poised balance of a top-class player.

But Ann Shilcock returns Miss Gabson's power with a fine display of her own het-game, plus rock-like steadiness from the baseline Final point now- (Sound) - After a magnificent fightyxibexEnglishx girlx fight by the English girl, the score is 4-6, 6-2, 6-I in Miss Gibson's favour.

Centre frent Court attraction is Bobby Wilson (Travertesm following Australia's his previous day's triumph) playing/Neale Fraser.

Wilson's at the far end (Sound) the fire and staying-power After his brillmant win over Budge Patry, the /seemed to be truki Wilson'S. lacking from Behry's play

The final rally- with Wilson serving nearest the camera (Sound) Tilexex novemaxinioxidex next x countries with a lax in a content of the least of t SEGREXISX826XX7X5XX6X5XXHardXinekXforXXilenexXwhexpuixepXE

Mough it's 8-6, 7-5, 6-3 for Neale Fraser, Bobby Wilson put up a courageous struggle

Another