

Pangbourne ceremony

Berkshire: When Admiral Earl Mountbatten arrived at Pangbourne Nautical College for the annual Founder's Day celebrations, he was accompanied by the Countess - who received a ~~beautiful~~ bouquet. Highlight of the occasion was, of course, the prizegiving by Lady Mountbatten, and the presentation of the Queen's Gold Medal to J.J.S. Daniel (the outstanding Cadet of the Year) by the First Sea Lord

Prince Bernhard

Rochester: Aboard the Training Ship "Arethusa" there's another prize-giving ceremony - this time by ~~the~~ Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands, who first inspected Cadets at the Passing-Out Parade.

The Royal Visitor then enjoyed a first-class ^{DISPLAY} of gymnastics ~~by the~~ Proud moment for the best all-round boy - L.B.B. Dimmock - when he was presented with the coveted Rob Roy Cup.

While a former cadet, Sub-Lt. Readings, R.N. received the Sword of Honour.

Bishop enthroned

Guildford: ~~Ecclasiastical~~ Ecclesiastical dignitaries joined in procession ~~through~~ to the Cathedral Church, for the enthronement of the Rt. Rev. Ivor Watkins, as fourth Bishop of Guildford, by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

The ceremony began with the new Bishop seeking admittance in traditional style. ^{SOUND}

After his installation, Dr Watkins blessed the town, the counties of Surrey and Hampshire, and the Diocese.
