Pangbourne ceremony

Berkshire: When Admiral Earl Mountbatten arrived at Pangbourne Nautical College for the annual Founder's Day celebrations, he was accompanied by the Countess - who received a bouquet highlight of the occasion was, of course, the prizegiving by Lady Mountbatten, and the presentation of the Queen's Gold Medal to J.J.S. Daniel (the outstanding Cadet of the Year) by the First Sea

Prince Bernhard

Rochester: Aboard the Training Ship "Arethusa" there's another Bernhard
prize-giving ceremony - this time by Prince/of the Netherlands, who first inspected Cadets at the Passing-Out Parade.

DIFLAY
The Royal Visitor then enjoyed a first-class/of gymnastics

Proud moment for the best all-round boy - L.B.B. Dimmock - when he was presented with the coveted Rob Roy Cup.

While a former cadet, Sub-Lt. Readings, R.N. received the Sword of Honour.

Bishop enthroned

Guildford: Exclastical Ecclesiastical dignitaries joined in procession through to the Cathedral Church, for the enthronement of the RT. Rev. Ivor Watkins, as fourth Bishop of Guildford, by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

The camemony began with the new Bishop seeking admittance in traditional style SOUND

After his installation, Dr Watkins blessed the town, the counties of Surrey and Hampshire, and the Diocese