

Though forty-two bathing beauties don't make a summer, they certainly made a seasonable attraction at Morecambe - competing for the title "Miss Great Britain!" (2)

From Walsall came lovely Leila Williams - to take second-place honours - before winning the "Miss Blackpool" title.

Yes, it really was a beautiful headache for the judges, Mr Charles Eade of the "Sunday Dispatch", Bebe Daniels, Ben Lyon, and Sabrina... Pamela Thomas is but one of a lovely company - gathered after a nationwide search.

~~Another~~ - How would you place Iris Waller of Gateshead, who came fourth in the recent "Miss Universe" contest?

Somehow, ^{some of the} ~~most~~ lovely ones were eliminated, until only the six most lovely ones remained for the final choice.

And did you choose right? It's the girl who so nearly became "Miss Universe" - Iris Waller. She ^{now} gets

~~the~~ the more down-to-earth title "Miss Great Britain!"
