Childrens Art-

Sept 7th '56.

London-- ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ ^{ninth} The/National Exhibition of Children's Art-(sponsored by the "Sunday Pictorial") opened its doors at the Royal Institute Galleries, ~~XXXX~~ Over 300 works of art- including imaginative ~~pieces of~~ pottery and original pictures were shown, from an entry of almost 40,000. /

"A BOY ON A TRICYCLE"

~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ - Chosen for the Hall Mark of the show ~~XXXXXX~~

was the inspiration of five year-old Stephen Gray of St Albans.

^{MANY} ~~Many~~ youngsters dropped in to admire ~~the handwork of~~ their own exhibition, whose purpose was to encourage the creative abilities of Britain's school children.

A small London girl, Carole Laeks, proudly showed film-chief Sam Goldwyn her idea of a self-portrait. (2)

And a brilliant ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ teen-age exhibitor from Yorkshire- Ralph Wardle- had no less than half a dozen of his pictures accepted. He was the winner of a £250 Art Training Award. /
