

Negro riots

America: A new term whips up racial feeling in some Southern States as ~~they protest~~ ^{STATE} against the admission of negro pupils to ~~public~~ schools ~~in some Southern States~~ IN PARTS OF THE SOUTH.

Despite the Supreme Court ruling, declaring segregation to be illegal, the police have to escort coloured children to school.

In Maryland, the opposition takes a different form. There, ~~the Negroes~~ ^{the Negroes} are admitted, but white scholars decide to stay away ~~is~~ Distressing scenes at Clinton, Tennessee, as the National Guard ~~is~~ have to protect the rights of the Negro to enjoy equal education.

Storm

Japan: Tearing in from the South Pacific - the fifth typhoon of the season brings roaring winds and torrential rain. Towns over a wide area become an inland sea ~~and buildings are washed by the raging~~ one hundred miles ~~away~~

It's a heartbreaking job to try and sweep away the invading waters - though when you get down to bare facts - it ^{seems} better to keep your head dry.

Miss London Airport

Middlesex: Parading for the title "Miss London Airport" - the girls with the down-to-earth jobs - the receptionists, prove that they, too, have their full share of airline glamour ~~is~~

There were thirteen entries representing British and foreign airlines - and the judges included film star Michael Craig.

A lovely line-up: ~~with a real~~ ^{with a real} "head-in-the-clouds" ^{FEELING} for the winner, 22 year-old ~~Sonia Simpson~~ ^{Sonia Simpson} of B.O.A.C. ~~receptionist!~~

Italian Grand Prix

Italy: Ace riders from all over Europe competed in the Italian Grand Prix meeting on the Monza circuit.

This was the final event in the World Championship, and in the 500 c.c. class, Geoff Duke and his team-mate Liberati, shared a new lap record of 116.5 miles per hour. The two rivals also shared a thrilling wheel-to-wheel battle, until Duke snatched the victory by two lengths. Now he's ready to battle again for the World Crown - next season.