237

Troops in Rhineland (Continued)

West Germany: A unit commander receives the key to the barracks, in a Rhineland town - as the new to takes over garrison-duty. for the set wine.

NEWS HIGHLIGHTS

After eleven years and to the sound of martiel music, and Germa Army marches again in the Bhineland - ready to shoulder a growing responsibility in the Republic's defence

Falls

America: For a hundred years, the Callo Falls, on the Columbia River, have been the happy hunting-ground of Bed Indian tribes - as they netted salmon under treaty-rights. But once again, the march of progress catches up with mailtone the red man's preserve - for a huge dam has been built ## downstream, the lait.

Soon, this fishing paradise will be inundated by swirling waters. But, in 1956, the Indians welcomed the white man's invasion at they exchanged their treaty rights for cash payments.

Campbell

Lancashire: Tearing along on skis, xxixx Speed King Donald Campbell gets the feel of Coniston Water. Meanwhile, his turbo-jet boat, "Bluebird" gets the finishing touches for fire affective to confident that been increase his own world water speed record for Stern moth. And on nearby Lake Windermere, another record achievement for Britain, sets up a new as Mr Buckley, a Manchester solicitor, astrony Xater Speed record, with an average speed of 79.66 miles per hour.