

2373

Hair Fashions

28th Sept. 1956

In Vienna, they staged the World's Hairdressing Championships, with experts from eleven countries to make sure that those "ends" stayed in place. Of course, there were different styles for day and evening wear. Now ^{you} know why the girl friend is always late for that date. Highlight of the show ~~were~~ were styles that Carmen Miranda herself might have envied. They called them "high fancy Vienna operettes". Just the thing for those expensive seats in the stalls - until somebody says "Madame! Would you mind removing your hair!"

But Switzerland caps this hair-raising story. There, the farmers decorate ~~with~~ the ^{cows} ~~animals~~ that have given the most milk for cheesemaking. ~~the~~ Fashions the milky way!