

London: From the land of sunshine some fashions for winter days - a joint collection of day and evening wear, presented by Italian designers, Alberto Fabiani and his wife, Donna Simonetta.

On the left, a ^{beige} ~~white~~ cotton raincoat, trimmed with fur, ~~designed~~ designed for our summer....sorry winter! Also sharing the limelight is a brown and white woollen coat - with the now-popular panel effect.

An important occasion? Well, you can really go to town in this grey and black woollen suit.

Here's an idea for the party-season ahead - a short evening-gown in bright blue satin, topped by an embroidered stole.

In contrast, a modern gown in classic vein. A creation in black faille - with a white embroidered bodice.

Grey will be a fashionable colour this season. It is used, in matching shades, in this long evening gown, worn with a darker coat.

Finally, an enchanting ^{WEDDING-GOWN} ~~gown~~ in white satin. The centre-piece of a top-line collection, inspired by the creative genius of two artists - from the land of colour and romance!

a land in the forefront of high fashion.