NEWS HIGHLIGHTS OB 2375 5th Oct. 1956

At Southend Airport, a car goes aboard an Air Charter Bristol Freighter - bound for Rotterdam. A journey that marks the inauguration of a new route to the famous Dutch seaport, and the reopening of Rotterdam Airport The previous airport was destroyed in the war.

A proud moment for Holland's principal port as the Air Freighter TAXIS IN [redacted].

A letter of civic greeting from London's Lord Mayor was handed to the Burgomaster..as Rotterdam Airport becomes a new Gateway to the Continent.

Doenitz released

Germany: As the authorities at Spandau Prison prepared to release former Grand-Admiral Doenitz, the West Berlin Police do their utmost to hinder the work of press photographers.

Meanwhile - the 65 year-old Admiral, who had completed his ten year Nuremberg sentence as a War Criminal (~~passed upon him at the Nuremberg Trial~~) left by a side entrance.

Admiral Doenitz who succeeded Hitler as Fuehrer, in 1945, then flew to Dusseldorf - where he gave an interview to the Press and met members of his family.

Cyprus

Cyprus: As a new bout of terrorism sweeps the island, British troops are making constant patrols - tearing down banners and placards - calling for UNION with Greece.

Following this recent outburst (when eight Britons were killed in five days) constant round-ups are being made in the search for hidden weapons - as the unhappy wave of violence continues.

Germany

Germany: As a lesson on modern airpower, students from the NATO Defence College, near Paris, visited a demonstration of Western air and ground equipment, at the U.S. Air Force Base, Landstuhl.

During the show, a tactical jump by Airborne Infantry (complete with heavy equipment)featured the rapid deployment of a military force.

The young officers were also briefed on the Matador Guided Missile - as NATO strength underlines the modern message "Power for Peace"