

Windsor: On Trafalgar Day, ~~an extraordinary distinguished~~ ~~and~~ ~~remembrance~~, standard bearers of the British Legion (Women's Section) enter St. George's Chapel.

The occasion was the dedication of a new area standard, ^{After} ~~the~~ the Service, Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone, took the salute, at a march-past of this Southern Area parade.

In London, ~~was~~ ~~these~~ ~~see~~ ~~Royal~~ ~~encouragement~~ ~~for~~ ~~a~~ ~~National~~ ~~Association~~,

~~was~~ The Princess Royal reviewed a parade of 7,000 ~~British~~ Rangers - before a service, held in the Albert Hall.

The girls (who had come from all parts of the country) had attended an All-England Ranger Rally, the previous evening.

Now, these senior members of the Girl Guide Movement shared a Service of Thanksgiving with their President, the Princess Royal.

The Parade was held ^{NEAR} ~~in the vicinity of~~ the Albert Memorial, ^{that} ~~a~~ familiar London landmark ^{HONOURING} ~~recalling a glorious~~ ~~golden~~ ~~age~~. For it commemorates ~~Prince Albert~~, Queen Victoria's Consort - and his efforts to promote British prosperity - at home and overseas.

But it was another London landmark, dedicated to our greatest Sailor - that dominated this day of commemoration. On the 151st anniversary of the Battle of Trafalgar, the Navy League led the ^{tribute} ~~homage~~ to Admiral Lord Nelson - whose death in the hour of victory, ^{WAS TO INSPIRE} ~~bequeathed us a~~ ~~priceless~~ ~~tradition of service.~~ ^{GENERATIONS TO COME.}

^{in Scotland} This great day of Naval homage was also celebrated, ^{on} Glasgow Green. There, a service of remembrance was held around the Nelson Monument - decorated with the Admiral's famous signal, ~~that has inspired the most heroic deeds in Naval history.~~

^{NAVAL} During the ~~service~~, The Lord Provost of Glasgow inspected the Guard of Honour.

~~Today~~, ^{AS} ~~as~~ the Royal Navy becomes an "atomic age force" the spirit of Nelson lives on ~~...upholding the sea-faring tradition of our forefathers.~~
