

After a rough flight from Tanganyika, Princess Margaret arrived at Nairobi, on the next stage of her East African Tour.

And what a welcome there was to this flourishing capital of Kenya ~~Colony~~ from the large gathering of British settlers and Loyal Africans, who were further heartened by the capture of ~~Max~~ No I Mau Mau terrorist Dedan Kimathi.

An early visit was made to the workshops of the East African Railways, with their ~~massing~~ blast furnaces and huge cranes that carry loads up to nearly 40 tons.

Before leaving, Her Royal Highness inspected a locomotive, ~~that had~~ recently ~~been~~ shipped from Britain.

~~Besides~~ industry, ^{too,} agriculture was well represented, at a parade of superb cattle from some of Kenya's most famous dairy herds- a proud reminder of the Colony's growing farming interests.

Unfortunately one competitor was not on his best behaviour.

And the presentation of prizes ^{ROUNDED OFF} ~~to the champions of their class, would~~ ~~be~~ a most successful afternoon.

IN SPITE OF THEIR ILLNESS
The following day brought a full round of engagements- and in the Sports Stadium at Nairobi, the Princess, ~~was~~, received the homage of thousands of children.

Royal acknowledgment of sporting activities in Kenya, came with the presentation of 27 members of the Colony's Olympics Team, who received a shield from the Princess. And then the flag which will proudly take its place in the Grand Parade at Melbourne's Stadium.

Princess Margaret shares her family's interest in child welfare, ~~which~~ ^{with} ~~is~~ ~~only~~ ~~borne~~ ~~out~~ by this visit to a children's clinic.

At an evening reception held in her honour at Government House, the ~~Princess's~~ ^{Princess} ~~was~~ ~~joined~~ ~~by~~ ~~Sir~~ ~~Evelyn~~ ~~Baring~~, ~~Governor~~ ~~of~~ ~~Kenya~~, and Lady Baring. Meanwhile, the Duke of Edinburgh who had flown from Britain, arrived at Mombasa, and made a sunset tour of the town. 3

Then he boarded the Royal Yacht Britannia- to continue his world tour- the next port of call being the Seychelles. ~~in the~~ ~~next~~ ~~port~~ ~~of~~ ~~call~~ ~~being~~ ~~the~~ ~~Seychelles~~.
