

At Wembley, soccer fans settled down hoping to watch a great spectacle as England (in white shirts) kicked off in this star-studded international.

England relied on a rich blend of famous veterans and eager youth. But here, Grainger was too eager

Wales, well!- From this free kick they just relied on the mighty John Charles ~~WELSH GOAL!~~ FOR A THRILLING GOAL! (BRING UP)

Wales one-up and heading for that first Wembley win. Then, Kelsey goes down to stop Tom Finney scoring.

AND Jack Kelsey <sup>HAS TO BE</sup> carried off. ~~The game is over as a spectacle.~~ Full back

Alf Sherwood goes in goal to meet strong England pressure. This time, Grainger hits the ~~ball~~ <sup>UPRIGHT</sup> - and somehow, the ball is scrambled away.

Then comes another shock for Wales. Mel Charles is carried off. ~~with~~

And though England now threw everything into attack, those nine

Welshmen desperately plugged the gaps, until half-time brought them a welcome breather.

Wales returned at full strength, (though Kelsey was hobbling on the wing) and, soon after, Johnny Haynes levelled the scores.

Stanley Matthews now. Once again, the evergreen veteran paved the way to victory. And Brooks celebrated his first cap...with <sup>GOAL NO. 2</sup> ~~goal~~.

Then after Kelsey had limped off, England made it three-one,

Tom Finney piling on the agony for gallant Wales.
