

Local.

2385

Glasgow: An exchange of goodwill pennants marked Yugoslavia's first visit to Hampden Park - for their return match with Scotland.

Last year, the teams drew two-all in Belgrade. Now, Scotland (in dark jerseys) kicked off - determined to become the first home country to defeat the visitors.

Right from the Off - Scotland launched a probing ~~attack~~ <sup>RAID. 3</sup>

But slowly, the Yugoslavs came into the game with dainty pattern-weaving <sup>MOVEMENTS.</sup> ~~attacks~~. But Scotland countered with quick, hard tackling before the visitors got into goal-range. <sup>11/8/4</sup>

Then, with a sweeping attack, Scotland took the lead, Mudie heading a grand goal. <sup>2/3/4</sup>

With mounting confidence, ~~Scotland~~ <sup>the Scots</sup> now took charge - ~~but~~ <sup>though</sup> veteran Bears made some cool saves.

But like most continental goalies - a persistent challenge gets him hot and bothered. <sup>R.B.C.</sup>

The opening period finished with renewed Yugoslav pressure - giving promise of a dour struggle to come. <sup>7/1/4</sup>

And so it proved. Right from the off, the Slavs made ground with skilful mid-field play - but they lacked shooting-power to round off their efforts. <sup>10/4</sup>

Then, Scotland showed them the way...as Baird bangs a free-kick against the post - and crashed home the rebound. <sup>10/1/4</sup>

Two goals down, the visitors rallied desperately to try and preserve their proud, unbeaten record in Britain. <sup>10/1/4</sup>

~~But~~ In the final stages, the initiative passed ~~again~~ again to Scotland - and this should have been number three...

But the Scots were content. A two-nothing ~~result~~ victory that set an example for England to follow - at Wembley. <sup>11/1/4</sup>