

Haile Selassie

Emperor Hirohito greet<sup>s</sup> <sup>Emperor</sup> Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, ~~the first foreign monarch to visit~~

A goodwill meeting that will strengthen the bonds between ~~Africa and~~ <sup>Asiatic</sup> ~~Asiatic~~ <sup>and</sup> ~~and~~ <sup>nations</sup> ruled by two of the world's most ancient dynasties.

Duke in Australia-

Australia-- Continuing his tour of the great "outback" the Duke of Edinburgh tried a new line in bush hats, when, in a temperature of 107 degrees, he watched a cattle round-up at Brunette Downs.

This ~~was the~~ <sup>extends</sup> centre of a vast holding of rich pastoral land, ~~extending~~ for nearly 5,000 square miles.

And later, when driving in an open car through ~~the~~ sunny streets, the Duke received a tremendous ovation in Melbourne, where he opened the 16th Olympic Games.

Soccer

Under the Roker Park lights, Sunderland (in dark shorts) <sup>kicked off -</sup> ~~kick off~~ but the spotlight was on the visitors, Red Banner (now known as M.T.K. Hungaria), and Wearside fans were generous in their applause for these soccer crusaders.

Showing improved form, Sunderland once led by two goals - the second scored by the one and only Len Shackleton.

In a second half rally, Red Banner fought back to share the honours - in a thrilling two-all draw.
