

Port Said: This is one of the Yugoslav ships that brought more troops for the United Nations Force. And these are British troops who welcomed ~~the~~ arrival <sup>of the</sup> ~~of the~~ 720 Yugoslavs on board.

By sea and air, the United Nations build-up has <sup>slowly</sup> continued ~~for nearly a month since the resolution was passed - yet only three thousand men (just half the proposed force) has arrived.~~

Meanwhile, in the No Man's Land, at El Cap, a United Nations official prepares the way for the take-over by international troops.

~~The original agreement was for the troops (a Danish company) to take over the two lines simultaneously. The Egyptians, however, refused to surrender their positions.~~

Finally, with British troops <sup>forces</sup> ready to withdraw - the Allied line was handed over...to United Nations keeping.

With the Danish force <sup>are</sup> some Canadians - who ~~are~~ clearing hundreds of mines - laid illegally - by the Egyptians.

~~So one major aim of the United Nations intervention has been effected...
[The following text is heavily redacted with 'x' marks]~~

So one major aim of the United Nations intervention has been effected <sup>WITH THE TAKE-OVER FROM BRITISH TROOPS.</sup> ~~as they took over from the Yorks and Lancs Regiment. Since then, a~~ <sup>FIRST STAGE IN</sup> ~~Government statement has announced, the~~ <sup>COMING</sup> withdrawal of the Allied Force - from Egypt.../