Lights up for Christmas (Continued)

And blazing a trail of a different kind "Down Under," British drivers - including Stirling Moss) were competing in the Australian Grand Prix - at Melbourne.

Speeding away for the 250 mile race, the crack drivers were soon showing their skill as they jockeyed for position.

Popular British star Peter Whitehead in car no. 3) matches paces with an Australian ace - Reg Hunt...

Stirling Moss was see lapping at break neck speed - despite heavy rain that made treacherous going. This was the end of the race for one driver. A nasty crash - but he escaped with a broken leg. . Stirling moss a gruelling eighty-lap struggle on a flooded course. But it proved almost plain sailing for Stirling Moss. He won easily by a lapto record one more Grand Prix triumph.