The Yuletide spirit came to Birmingham's Springfield Cinema, when Santa Claus arrived by vintage car, for a party, given in aid of the city's spastic children.

And ^{the generous old gentleman} "Old Man Cheer" brought with him a load of good things, to give youngsters denied a clean bill of health, renewed hope.

For a few short hours, they'll forget their grievous handicap, and revel in the fun- just like ~~anybody~~ anyone else at this festive season.

Inside the cinema, Birmingham's Lady Mayoress received a cheque for £250 from Mr Majzub (Treasurer of the Bow Tie Club) who collected the generous contributions to ~~an~~ worthy cause.

So Birmingham gives the lead ^{WITH A} ~~to a magnificent effort~~ splendid occasion, bringing happiness ^{INTO MANY} ~~and contentment to many~~ young ~~life~~ LIVES.
