Jan 8th. '57.

Berkshire-- Arriving at St Mary's Church, Hampstead Norris, ~~Britain~~ that secular British ~~Britain's~~ popular film star Tony Wright shared an anxious moment with his best man over the whereabouts of the ring. (2)

But all's well- and together they entered the sixteenth-century
Church, ~~at the village Tony had known since boyhood~~

The bride was lovely 21 year-old actress Janet Munro- a radiant
Earl St John.

Leaving for the reception, the happy pair were met by an avalanche of confetti--- and fans. The good wishes of us all follow them to Paris, where the honeymoon is being spent.
