

Japan: At the Port of Maizuru, the joyous homecoming of over one thousand prisoners-of-war from the Soviet Union was ~~marked~~ - when the ashes of ~~dead~~ ^{overshadowed} comrades were carried ashore.

The tearful reunions that followed bridged a long separation. For eleven years - these men (captured by Russia in the last campaign) were held in Siberia. Ten thousand are still missing; but for these united families the long ordeal is over.

More Far East News from Karachi. There, Mr Chou En-lai, the Premier of Communist China, was welcomed to Pakistan by the Prime Minister - Mr Suhrawardy...

A vast crowd gathered to add their greetings to the Chinese Premier who during his ~~six~~ ten day official tour, visited a textile mill and other industrial centres.

Nearer home, in Budapest, a brave people have been taking the uphill road back to normal conditions - the aftermath of their courageous uprising that won world-wide admiration.

To-day, as Hungarians ~~strive~~ repair their shattered Homeland, the struggle has ~~not~~ ^{NOT} been abandoned - for that tiny spark of freedom has become a beacon of hope.

Meanwhile, at the ~~Mansion~~ ^{Mansion} House, in London, the cause of Hungarian refugees has won a sympathetic response.

~~For~~ ^{For} his Hungarian Relief Fund, the Lord Mayor received a cheque for £60,000 on behalf of the City of Birmingham.

~~Representatives~~

Then, from representatives of the film industry, ~~some~~ amounts totalling over £78,000 - the contribution of the cinema-going public.

This brings the Lord Mayor's Fund to well over two million pounds - a generous offering - ~~not least by you~~ ^{greatly assisted by you} - the cinemagoers.