

Striving to live up to the high ideals of service set by his ~~chief~~^{old} chief and Friend Sir Winston Churchill, ^{AND FIGHTING ILL HEALTH} has proved too heavy a burden for Sir Anthony Eden.

~~Now, after twenty-one months as Prime Minister,~~ The man who began his career at the Foreign Office under Sir John Simon, ^{HAVING FOUGHT FOR HIS COUNTRY IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR} ~~...and~~ ^{THE PREMiership} has resigned on medical advice. ^{THIS WAS A MEETING WITH HITLER IN THE EARLY 1930'S.} ~~During those years,~~ Sir Anthony's visits to Soviet Russia were to prove an invaluable help during the war-time alliance. And later, in the difficult post-war years.

A staunch supporter of the League of Nations, Sir Anthony deplored the use of aggression. He once proclaimed "We will co-operate with any Nation, but will be dictated to by none!!!"

Always a man of courage, his resignation on the policy adopted on ~~the~~ Abyssinia and the Hitler menace, could have ended his career.

The disastrous events of 1940 brought Mr Churchill and Mr Eden back into power. Losing no time, Mr Eden (~~then~~ ^{THEN} the Foreign Secretary) visited ~~Moscow and~~ ^{Moscow, AND ALSO MET SOVIET LEADERS IN BRITAIN.}

~~Top-line~~ Top-line conferences with his chief, prepared him for his future career at No. 10.

~~His~~ ^{IN 1955} Then, Sir Anthony succeeded Sir Winston as Prime Minister. For Sir Anthony, it was an exhausting challenge - ~~the~~ ^{FOLLOWING THE GREATEST GENIUS OF OUR TIME.}

~~...prodigious...~~ AFTER 21 MONTHS OF Grappling with difficult world problems, the new Premier faced a serious breakdown in health. And though a Jamaican holiday partly restored him - increasing strain took toll of the ^{MAN} whose efforts for world peace have been unequalled in modern times.

EXTRA.

^{From his country} AND SO MR HAROLD MACMILLAN - FORMER CHANCELLOR OF THE EXCHEQUER - BECAME BRITAIN'S NEW PRIME MINISTER.
