

~~By long tradition, America's Inauguration Day celebrations began with~~
 INAUGURATION DAY ~~ceremonial~~ at the Capitol, in Washington; ~~THE~~ PRESIDENT EISENHOWER TAKES THE OATH FOR HIS SECOND TERM OF OFFICE.
~~There, under thousands of citizens had gathered to watch President~~
~~take the oath for his second term of office.~~
~~Then, the President launched into the theme of his Inaugural Address -~~
~~the theme of peace and unity.~~
~~THE PRESIDENT AND MRS EISENHOWER LEADING ALONG~~
^{THEN} the Processional Drive began, ~~in a parade~~ the two-mile route to the White House.

A contingent from West Point, marched with Cadets from all the Service Academies, in a parade centred around "Liberty and Strength" / S
 Guided missiles (some making their first public appearance) ~~was~~ were an impressive sight for foreign observers. /

One of the floral floats featured a light-hearted reference to a particular hobby - the President's favourite drive!

And it holed out, Vice-President Nixon Taking a fine catch!

Finally, the Republican Party mascot pays weighty tribute to America's 34th President - much to the delight of his grandchildren. /
