	(2407)	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Th	e Bells of St. Clement's	25th January 1957
1
Lo	ndon: Sixteen years ago, the famous Bells of St.	Clement's were si	lenced by the Luftwaffe. The blitzed church, St. C	lement Danes is to be	rebuilt as the official R.A.F. Church.
	-day, the bells have been recast and the Shier Charles	i Chief
	ficiated, at the Dedication and Naming Ceremony.	-
Ai	r Chief Marshal Sir Dermot Boyle named the tenor b	ell tidan in hannak
ōſ	Lord Trenchard. Sound "I NAME THIS AELL	"BOOM"")
	e by one - the twelve bells were named - recalling	/
Ar	d with the distribution of the traditional oranges	and lemons - the be	lls sounded again - a message of hope for St. Clem	ent Danes.
Y •re Me	mories of war-time Britain were revived and at the	he R.A.F. Station,
Ke	nley - with a reubion of famous flyers.
In	side the Station, a "Battle of Britain" lounge pays	s tribute to a brave
th	mpany - while the pilots themselves - have their or e painting x thexpaining of a Spitfire by David Shepherd.
"reach	ound the wells, too, are portraits of young f:	stan pilots - whe
3	stort cocke from his group includes Johnny	ved a lifetime in a
	Douglas Bader and Air Marshal Sir Richard At Kenley), .... Heroes all!