

The Boat Show

America's biggest Boat Show opened in New York - with more than four hundred exhibits to attract the city-dweller.

Here's a new type of circular boat - just right for fishing-round-the clock...

Yes, a life on the ocean wave has its compensations. And more often than not the sailor's ~~expletive~~ cry "land to starboard" means there's a girl in the port.

Liner

London: Familiar lines of the past serve to illustrate the unorthodox, yet streamlined efficiency of the new 45,000 ton liner - ordered by the ~~Princess~~ P. & O. Line.

~~Examining~~ ^{EXAMINING} the model, Sir William Currie, the Company Chairman, and Sir Hugh Casson, the famous designer, discuss the merits of the ~~twelve-and-a-half~~ twelve-and-a-half million pound liner, designed for the Australian run.

Car crash

New Zealand: One of Britain's ^{finest racing} ~~most accomplished~~ drivers - ~~the late Ken~~ Ken Wharton - ^{preparing} ~~preparing~~ for the start of the International Grand Prix - ~~which was to prove~~ his last race.

Soon after the start, Wharton (driving a Maserati) took the lead and seemed set for one of his greatest triumphs...until.. / SOUND

The car ~~had~~ hit the Timekeeper's steel tower and though officials and ambulances were quickly on the spot - the fearless driver died on his way to hospital.

The winner of many rallies as well as track-events, Ken Wharton will be sadly missed on the international racing circuit.
