

Grain Fire-

America-- Chicago's South Side became the centre of a disastrous ~~outbreak~~ outbreak, as ~~blazing~~ flames and smoke enveloped a grain elevator.

The fire was fanned by high winds, which seriously hampered the efforts of the firemen, battling perilously on giant ladders.

Though surrounding ~~property~~ property was saved, the ~~grain~~ elevator became a tangled mass, as the walls came crashing down.

Over five million dollars' worth of grain ~~was~~ ^{was} lost, in one of Chicago's most spectacular fires.

Mad Bomber arrested-

America-- In the garage of his home at Waterbury, Connecticut, George Metesky, a Lithuanian, made 32 bombs, which he ~~distributed~~ ^{placed} in various parts of New York. And a sixteen-year hunt ended with his arrest. ~~The~~ ^{A grievance against his former employer was the} motive behind the explosions, which caused injury to fifteen people, ~~he confessed,~~ ^{he confessed,} ~~was a grievance against his firm.~~

Now awaiting trial, the "Mad Bomber" (as he's called) can cool his ~~hust~~ heels behind prison bars.

Prisoner Exchange-

~~Middle East- The Sinai Peninsula becomes the centre of an exchange of war prisoners between Egypt and Israel.~~

~~The first of some 5000 Egyptians (captured during the brief campaign) are returned in groups of 500 a day.~~

~~Under the supervision of Yugoslav troops of the United Nations Emergency Force, they're on their way home.~~

~~Only four Israeli prisoners of war were captured.~~

Princess Caroline-

Monaco-- In the green drawing-room of the Palace, an important event took place in the life of ^{the infant} Princess Caroline. The official registration of ~~the~~ ^{the} birth of the 31st generation of the ancient Grimaldi Family.

The ceremony was attended by her father, Prince Rainier, and Mrs John Kelly- Princess Grace's mother, besides a host of relatives and palace dignitaries.

Here are the first pictures of the radiant Mother-~~(specially allowed)~~ ^{daughter,} ~~out of bed by her doctor,~~ and her two-day old ~~infant.~~

Telegrams of congratulation included greetings from the Queen, the Pope and Sir Winston Churchill. ~~and now did the centre of attraction~~
