

The liner Queen Elizabeth glided in sedately enough - it was Southampton that was rock n' rolling for the arrival of Bill Haley and his Comets. Here, on a ~~circus~~ tour of Britain, Bill left for London - and soon that boat train was rocking over the rails in hep time. SOUND.

At Waterloo, the "King of Rock n' Roll" was welcomed by.... Well - just dig those happy cats - and ~~there was~~ not a square in sight.

So the visit of Bill Haley began in grand style - the forthcoming tour will be crazy-man-crazy - so ^{you} happy cats, keep your enthusiasm in bounds - and don't let the squares knock the rock!
