

Students released

Hungary: Sobered by sixteen days in a Hungarian prison on charges of espionage, four young University students were released on the ~~Hungari~~ Austrian border.

Their freedom followed repeated efforts by the British Government...
And here they are at London Airport ^(down) Judith Cripps, grand-daughter of the late Sir Stafford Cripps, Roger Cooper and Christopher and Basil Lord.

It seems that they had intended trying to help Hungarian students: but it proved ^{A BITTER EXPERIENCE} an adventure they'll long remember..

Tanker

Barrow-in-Furness:

At Barrow-in-Furness, this new vessel pays tribute to the efforts of shipbuilders, in the ^{STEPPING} build-up of Britain's tanker fleet.

Christened by "British Glory" by Mrs Aubrey Jones, wife of the former Minister of ^{Supply} ~~Fuel and Power~~, the vessel is the first of two - built by Vickers-Armstrongs.

Rugby: Wales V Scotland

Edinburgh: The confidence of Welsh fans gave their Scottish hosts much food for thought at Murrayfield. And almost from the start of this Rugby international, the Welsh fifteen stormed the Scottish line.

Twice during the match - Wales were leading - the first time following this fine penalty by Davies.

But Scotland (shaping for a Triple Crown Year) twice drew level - and finally won - by nine points to six.
