

Birmingham's first home cup-tie for two years brought Nottingham Forest to St. Andrew's...

58,000 fans watched Birmingham kick off - in this all-Midland Sixth Round tie...

From the start, both defences were on top - and here's a fine goal-line clearance for the Forest... S

~~For from subdued, second division Forest swarmed into the attack - and~~

Then a long-range Forest shot goes over the top.

Leading-goal-scorer for Birmingham, Govan gets across a fine centre - but it brings no reward...

Another Nottingham attack - but Merrick shows his England class...

Opening the second half - the Forest had more of the play - ~~with~~ but their long-range shooting lacked fire...

And here - danger-man Govan nearly won the tie - but in a goalless draw - the defences carried the day...
