Our stars for Cannes

London Airport: Off to the Mediterranean - three charming ~~stars~~ ambassadors for British films - Bette St. John, June Laverick and Anne Haywood - were ~~at~~ the first departures for the Tenth International Film Festival, at Cannes. ^{11/2}

~~And this will be a long lot of~~ it's James Robertson Justice - arriving at the airport... ⁵

There - he joined Mr John Davis, (Managing Director of the Rank Organisation) and Mrs Davis - journeying south to ensure a place in the box-office sun - for British films. ^{14/7}

Belgrade Parade

Jugoslavia: ~~celebrations in Belgrade with the blowing of~~ ^{ON PARADE} armed forces ~~through the streets of~~ ^{BELGRADE} ~~the~~ ^{TOOK THE SALUTE} Marshal Tito - (accompanied by Ministers and Members of the Diplomatic Corps) [^] as the parade went by ^{10/8}

~~As~~ Spring flowers were showered upon the Dictator who, despite the ^{nearness} of huge Soviet forces - is carving a middle course in the welfare of his country. ^{7/1}

Israel

In Tel Aviv, another impressive military spectacle ^{- WATCHED BY PRIME MINISTER BEN GURION} was the climax of Israel's celebration of the ninth anniversary of her independence. ^{9/7}

~~was watched by 300,000 citizens and~~ ~~Prime Minister -~~ ~~Gurion who never conceals his pride in the army he helped to create...~~

In the parade - a number of modern weapons were on show for the first time. ^{3/5}

Jordan:

Jordan: ~~Parading the~~ ^{AT} the great Hussein Mosque - in Amman, Moslems celebrate the end of ^{the} four weeks' fasting - known as "Ramadan"

The easing of the Middle East crisis brought added zest to the three days of festival which followed the fast.

But although Jordan's young ruler, King Hussein has apparently triumphed against Communist plotting - a watchful ~~xx~~ eye is needed to guard against the many enemies that surround his tiny kingdom. ^{22/7}
