Framed by the majestic Castle background, the Royal Windsor Show introduces the season dedicated to the horse and enthusiasts of the Show Ring.

Already known as "the show with the family appeal" - the occasion began as part of a "Wings for Victory" week in 1943 - and has rapidly grown in popularity. ¹⁵/7

~~This year~~ - Besides the many first-class jumping events - an added attraction was the first show appearance of the famous "Mounties" - now making a goodwill tour of Britain. ⁷/18

~~Throughout the years,~~ The family from the great Castle have ^{always} been eager visitors ~~to the show~~ - ^{THIS YEAR} and Prince Charles (recovering from his operation) no doubt, sadly missed this colourful festival - held in his own "back garden". ¹⁰/2
