Leeds return home

"Up for the Cup" sounds a note of hope: but "taking home the cup" is the final expression of pride and achievement. These were the happy scenes at King's Cross - when triumphant Leeds left London - for their ~~home-town~~ journey home.

In the past, Leeds has generously applauded many Australians for their exploits at Headingley. But this time, Skipper Keith McLellan wins a real home-town welcome - sharing with his team-mates the ~~Yorkshire~~ Yorkshire congratulations...

At the Town Hall - the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress added their "well done" to the team that has made Rugby League history... ^{In} their first Cup triumph for 21 years - this youthful ~~Yorkshire~~ side has started well in bringing new glories to a famous Rugby League club...
