

The disappointment of Derby Day was forgotten, as the Queen discussed her prospects for the Oaks with her jockeys - W.H. Carr and Lester Piggott...

And the crowds thronging Epsom Downs looked on and hoped...for a Royal Champion to succeed - where such as Aureole, Landau and ~~...~~ had failed... DOUFELLE

The field of eleven got off to a good start, with the two Royal hopes

~~...~~
Mulberry Harbour and ~~...~~ <sup>CARROZZA</sup> not among the early leaders; - they were bred for stamina...

Round the wide bend to Tattenham Corner - it's Taittinger No. 5 (the Northern hope) showing the way - from Winged Sprite of Ireland - and with No. 2, Mulberry Harbour ready to move....

Round Tattenham Corner, Taittinger still striding ahead from Winged Mulberry Harbour

Sprite; but then a gasp of dismay, ~~the Royal hope~~ is dropping back. BUT CARROZZA - No. 1 - AND LESTER PIGOTT - ARE WAITING THEIR CHANCE.
Into the straight and the cheers swell - for a Royal champion has appeared - as we hand over to Raymond Glendenning...SOUND.

HATS OFF - THE QUEEN!

Victory by a short head - ~~...~~ But, for a moment, Carrozza nearly spoils the racing picture of the year... SO THE QUEEN LEADS IN

HER FIRST CLASSIC WINNER.
A magnificent Derby-Oaks triumph for jockey Lester Piggott, and the man behind the scenes - trainer Noel Murless.

A great result as the Royal Owner (who has so often greeted defeat with a smile), enjoys a big-race triumph..
