

America: If you think of the guided missile as a modern invention, you'll be surprised to learn that ~~for~~ this first American attempt ~~happened around~~ ~~around 1919~~ at guided flight happened around 1919.

After several attempts, the flimsy craft was finally launched - the forerunner of our modern inter-planetary weapons.

To-day, the streamlined rocket has a range of well over ~~1,000~~ ^{1,500} miles.

While, in another direction, the Falcon air-to-air rocket is the main armament of a modern fighter...

Working on the robot principle, the Falcon thinks for itself - hunting down its prey with awesome accuracy.

Truman visits Grandchild

New York: Soon after their daughter Margaret gave birth to a son ~~and~~ two proud grandparents, Mr and Mrs Harry Truman, ~~visited~~ ^{paid a call} at the hospital. ~~to see the infant and his mother...~~

On leaving, ~~with his~~ the former President told reporters that he didn't want his ~~son~~ ^{grandson} to enter the White House - the job's a bit too tough..