

LOCAL (2448)

Liverpool Charter Celebrations-

June 18th. '57.

MARKING

Liverpool - ~~Ballantyne~~ ~~ceremony~~

the City's 750th anniversary of the granting of its Charter by King John., ~~when~~ the 1st Battalion of the King's Regt marched to the Town Hall for ~~an inspection~~ an inspection by the Lord Mayor. Here, they mounted guard, and captured every eye with their resplendent uniforms of ceremonial blue.

was held

In the evening, ~~after~~ a special inaugural service/at the Cathedral, where the preacher was the Archbishop of York- Dr Ramsay, who escorted the Lord Mayor to ~~his~~ ^{HIS COACH} after it was over.

~~Adding further dignity to this important occasion, Alderman Cairns, drove off in the State Coach.~~

To illustrate Liverpool's share in developing the crafts- ^{an exhibition} ~~an industry~~

Industry

Advances ~~Exhibition~~ formed part of the celebrations; ~~an~~ an English Electric Napier aero engine typified many kinds of equipment-manufactured on Merseyside.

Countless

Among ~~the many~~ industrial gadgets was a plate-embossing machine while this robot-typist will stop all these late nights at the office.